You are responsible to read these rules & regulations prior to participating in this program.

All current State, County and City COVID-19 restrictions and safety requirements must be followed at all times.

- All participants must have a current open pickle ball punch card or must have paid the drop in fee and signed a waiver prior to participating.
- All participants on a daily basis must check in with the front office of the Kent Commons to have their registration card scanned or pay the daily drop-in fee.
- You cannot participate without checking in each day. If you do not check in with the front office of the Kent Commons each day, you may be precluded from further participation in this program.
- There are no refunds for this program.
- Participants must supply their own paddles.
- Appropriate workout clothing must be worn.
- Shoes must not make black streaks on courts. If you have black-soled shoes, please make sure they do not streak the floor before starting games.
- NO fighting, spitting, swearing, abusive language or any other actions/language that can be deemed inappropriate. If you are caught acting disrespectfully, you will be asked to leave the program for the day. If you incur multiple offenses, you will be banned from participation in the pickle ball program, and possibly the facility.
